Doug Berlin

I was raised in Hershey, Pennsylvania, where I currently live with my wife, Julie; 4 Rhodesian Ridgebacks; and a Basenji. The first 15 formative years of my life were spent with my Rhodesian Ridgeback, Jimmy, a wonderful friend and companion.

While attending graduate school in Atlanta, I was fortunate to meet and marry my wife Julie, who is also from Hershey and has been an animal lover her whole life. We moved back to Hershey, and when we decided to get our first dog, I naturally recommended a Ridgeback. She has been hooked on the breed ever since.

Over the past 15+ years, we have owned 7 Ridgebacks, a Greyhound and a Basenji, and we have been coursing for almost as long. In 2008, our Ridgeback, Valentine, was ranked #2 in the country, and in 2013 her daughters, PJ and Chrissy, were #1 and #2, respectively.

Since 2009 I've been an AKC and ASFA lure coursing judge. The beauty of judging for me is being out in the field close to the dogs as they throw every ounce of strength and drive they have into the chase, and the highlight of any given day is when that one dog comes along with a run that just takes your breath away.

I want to thank the Tulsa Sighthound Association for giving me this special opportunity to judge an outstanding field of hounds this weekend!

Most people spend some of their time searching for who they are, trying to identify other people, places and things that resonate with their souls. It took me a while but after several different breeds of dogs, I understood that I was a hound person. I'm not sure if it is that I can get into their heads or that can get into mine, but there is comfort being around hounds. Once I discovered sighthounds there was no turning back.

My introduction to lure coursing was a chilly day in October 1977, when we showed up at a field in Albuquerque NM with a totally green IW who had never seen a lure. She was excused that first day for coursing the other dog. After that she was never excused again, and became the first female IW to earn an LCM. Her passion for running never ended, even running a short practice course at age 10 years, only two weeks before she died.

I knew I enjoyed the sport almost as much as her, but that she would need to retire long before I would want to stop, so to keep going to trials I need a reason. Thus becoming a judge seemed a good idea. Now 30+ years later, having judged all across the US and even one trial in England I am very glad of the decision. It has allowed me to meet great people and hang out with some supper dogs.

My privilege has been to observe some of the best running dogs ever in most of the breeds. Each trial offers the excitement of seeing an even better run, more agility, speed and intensity.

For the past several years I have been president of Lobo Lure Coursing club (formally know as Albuquerque Whippet Fanciers Association). Additionally I have judged open field for TCC. I have shared my life with numerous Irish Wolfhounds, Salukis, an occasional Whippet and an Otter Hound.

Thank you for the opportunity to judge at the 2015 AKC NLCC.

I have always had dogs...mainly the dogs you play with, have around the house, those that followed you to school or stole the steak off the grill when you weren't paying attention. I received my first whippet in 1990. It was a fluke of sorts. I had a double-coated dog and told my dog trainer the next time I get a dog, it won't have so much hair. I think it was just two weeks later she had a rescue whippet for me – JoJo. Well, we had a Bobo, so JoJo became Devo (doesn't every whippet owner have a Devo?). We were quickly introduced to lure coursing. Devo was fast but not the best at follow (bury your head and run) so he was great at certifying other dogs, especially greyhounds. Well, I was hooked. I have traveled from Alaska to Florida, New York to California running and judging lure coursing events.

I was never big on points system, but remember someone calling us one November to check on where I was going to run my dog (Dante). Come to find out, he was in the top 5 and they wanted to know where not to go so they could get points. Dante didn't run anymore that year and ended up number 7, multiple Best of Breeds, Best in Fields, and the Grand National Winner. He taught me what a coursing dog could do...the standard.

It was good to get out of my area to see dogs do what they wanted to do and do it well: Greyhounds that could turn, Wolfhounds that not only ran, but jumped over obstacles, and Borzois that were keen on the pursuit. What I took away from all these journeys was to keep in mind that I am doing this for fun and for my dog; they love it. They don't care about a score or placement; that is an owner thing.

I have had several whippets and now have a Rhodesian ridgeback (who thinks she is a whippet). She doesn't have the speed but loves to run and has a good time meeting the other people and hounds. It has been over 25 years and I still love to see dogs run - run with grace and beauty. If you ask what am I looking for as a judge, I think I have given you my answer. I thank your club for giving me the opportunity to watch your hounds compete and judge their performance.

I am originally from Wisconsin. My first dog as an adult was a retired Rhodesian Ridgeback brood bitch, Tasha. She was a birthday present to me in 1982. I was not a dog person at that time, but knew enough to take her to obedience class in spring 1983, which is when I met Bunny Reed. She encouraged me to bring her to a lure coursing trial. I didn't go to one until later that year, where I first saw lure coursing and my first Scottish Deerhound. The RR loved coursing, the SD that we brought home not so much, but we saw the whippets run and were hooked. By 1984 the first whippet came into my life. I traveled with Bunny Reed and Sue Weinkein to lure coursing trials they judged and I ran my whippet. I took pictures of the hounds running as I was in photography sales at that time.

There is something about the sight of a running sighthound that just takes your breath away. I love to watch the hounds run, then began judging. I really enjoyed meeting all the different people over the course of learning to judge with their input and insight into their breeds. With the newer breeds coming in, I continue learning more about them and their style of running. I also do obedience, agility and show my dogs.

I am the current president of Iowa Coursing Association, and past president of the Cyclone country Kennel club I have held many different offices in local kennel club, coursing club; such as: conformation show chair, national secretary for the Scottish Deerhound Club of America, Field trial Secretary for American Whippet club, Scottish Deerhound Club of America, and Iowa Coursing Association.

I have judged both AKC and ASFA for a variety of clubs in the Midwest and Scottish Deerhound national specialties. I have judged in my show clothes, then run to the group ring to show my specials at AKC events. I have bred whippets and Scottish Deerhounds for many years. I got hooked on the Toy Fox Terriers before they were accepted into AKC - they make me laugh. I show and breed them. I need to try the youngster and grandma on a CAT next.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to come and judge the NLCC in 2015. I hope you all run safe and enjoy the sport.
